PERSONAL FINANCIAL SPECIALIST (PFS®) DESIGNATION MINIMUM QUALIFICATIONS¹

The AICPA's Personal Financial Specialist (PFS®) credential is issued by The American Institute of Certified Public Accountants (AICPA®) and granted exclusively to CPAs with a powerful combination of extensive tax expertise and comprehensive knowledge of financial planning. This knowledge is critical for obtaining the most valuable, objective advice possible.

To obtain the PFS® designation, a candidate must meet all of the following requirements:

- Be a member of the AICPA®;
- Hold an unrevoked CPA® certificate issued by a state authority;
- Have at least two years of full-time teaching or business experience (or 3000 hours equivalent) in personal financial planning within the five years preceding the date of the CPA®/PFS® application.

For candidates to obtain the PFS® designation, they must undergo a minimum of 75 hours of personal financial planning education within the five years preceding the date of the PFS® application, complete a final certification exam, and engage in 60 hours (or its equivalent) of continuing professional education every three years.

CERTIFIED PUBLIC ACCOUNTANT ("CPA®") DESIGNATION MINIMUM QUALIFICATIONS²

The Certified Public Accountant (CPA®) Designation is issued by the Boards of Accountancy. Like regular accountants, CPAs can help organizations and individuals:

- record and organize financial information;
- analyze trends;
- make budgetary recommendations;
- prepare tax documents;
- perform internal audits;
- ensure all financial activities are compliant with local and federal regulations.

However, due to their training in the public sector, CPAs can do a few other things that regular accounts legally can't, such as:

- Representing clients during IRS audits;
- Perform external and public audits;
- Prepare audited financial statements for the Securities and Exchange Commission (SEC).

Each state has slightly different requirements that one must follow for CPA certification. These requirements are determined by the state's Board of Accountancy and The American Institute of Certified Public Accountants (AIPCA).
