- CERTIFIED FINANCIAL PLANNER™ (CFP®) ¹

CERTIFIED FINANCIAL PLANNER (“CFP®”) DESIGNATION MINIMUM QUALIFICATIONS¹

I am certified for financial planning services in the United States by the Certified Financial Planner Board of Standards, Inc. (“CFP Board”). Therefore, I may refer to myself as a CERTIFIED FINANCIAL PLANNER™ professional or a CFP® professional, and I may use these and the CFP Board’s other certification marks (the “CFP Board Certification Marks”). The CFP® certification is voluntary. No federal or state law or regulation requires financial planners to hold the CFP® certification. You may find more information about the CFP® certification at www.CFP.net.

CFP® professionals have met the CFP Board’s high standards for education, examination, experience, and ethics. To become a CFP® professional, an individual must fulfill the following requirements:

- Education – Earn a bachelor’s degree or higher from an accredited college or university and complete CFP Board-approved coursework at a college or university through a CFP Board Registered Program. The coursework covers the financial planning subject areas the CFP Board has determined are necessary for the competent and professional delivery of financial planning services, as well as a comprehensive financial plan development capstone course. A candidate may satisfy some of the coursework requirements through other qualifying credentials. CFP Board implemented the bachelor’s degree or higher requirement in 2007 and the financial planning development capstone course requirement in March 2012. Therefore, a CFP® professional who first became certified before those dates may not have earned a bachelor’s or higher degree or completed a financial planning development capstone course.
- Examination – Pass the comprehensive CFP® Certification Examination. The examination is designed to assess an individual’s ability to integrate and apply a broad base of financial planning knowledge in the context of real-life financial planning situations.
- Experience – Complete 6,000 hours of professional experience related to the personal financial planning process or 4,000 hours of apprenticeship experience that meets additional requirements.
- Ethics – Satisfy the Fitness Standards for Candidates for CFP® Certification and Former CFP® Professionals Seeking Reinstatement and agree to be bound by CFP Board’s Code of Ethics and Standards of Conduct (“Code and Standards”), which sets forth the ethical and practice standards for CFP® professionals.

Individuals who become certified must complete the following ongoing education and ethics requirements to remain certified and maintain the right to continue to use the CFP Board Certification Marks:

- Ethics – Commit to complying with the CFP Board's Code and Standards. This includes a commitment to the CFP Board, as part of the certification, to act as a fiduciary, and therefore, act in the best interests of the client, at all times when providing financial advice and financial planning. CFP Board may sanction a CFP® professional who does not abide by this commitment, but CFP Board does not guarantee a CFP® professional's services. A client who seeks a similar commitment should obtain a written engagement that includes a fiduciary obligation to the client.
- Continuing Education – Complete 30 hours of continuing education every two years to maintain competence, demonstrate specified levels of knowledge, skills, and abilities, and keep up with developments in financial planning. Two of the hours must address the Code and Standards.

CFP® professionals who fail to comply with the above standards and requirements may be subject to CFP Board's enforcement process, which could result in suspension or permanent revocation of their CFP® certification.

ITEM 3: DISCIPLINARY INFORMATION

Registered investment advisers must disclose all material facts regarding any legal or disciplinary events that would be material to your evaluation of each supervised person providing investment advice.

Jason Gentile has no history of any legal or disciplinary events deemed material to a client's consideration of Jason Gentile to act as their investment adviser representative. ITEM 4: OTHER BUSINESS ACTIVITIES

In addition to their role with Fiduciary Financial Advisors, Jason Gentile is engaged in the following outside business activities:

LICENSED INSURANCE REPRESENTATIVE

Jason Gentile is a licensed insurance agent. Insurance recommendation implementation is separate and apart from Jason Gentile's role with Apella. As an insurance professional, [Advisor] will receive customary commissions and related revenues from the various insurance companies selling products. Jason Gentile is not required to offer the products of any particular insurance company. Commissions generated by insurance sales do not offset regular advisory fees. This practice presents a conflict of interest in recommending certain insurance companies' products. Clients are not obligated to implement any recommendations made by Jason Gentile. Jason Gentile will spend approximately 10% of his time per month in this capacity.

ITEM 5: ADDITIONAL COMPENSATION

Jason Gentile does not receive any economic benefit outside of the salaries and bonuses described in Item 4 of this brochure or on Form ADV Part 2A Items 10 and 12.

ITEM 6: SUPERVISION

Jason Gentile is supervised by James J. Scanlan, Chief Executive Officer of Apella. The President is responsible for overseeing the day-to-day advisory activities conducted by Jason Gentile. The President conducts periodic reviews of the IAR's advisory work to ensure it is consistent with applicable regulatory requirements and the firm's compliance program.

Ultimate supervisory authority and responsibility for compliance matters rests with the firm's Chief Compliance Officer (CCO), Timothy Richards, who monitors the overall effectiveness of the firm's supervisory structure. The CCO may review the IAR's activities as part of the firm's broader compliance testing program, including reviews of client files, trade activity, and communications, as warranted. James J. Scanlan can be reached at 401-829-0047.
